Dear RMBA Family and Friends,

For eight years, ROCKY MOUNTAIN BALLET ACADEMY has been inspiring the youth of Colorado and dancers of all backgrounds to become the next generation of leaders in the arts. Thank you for joining us in celebrating our holiday production of “The Nutcracker” here at the Elaine Wolf Theatre, December 6 - 8, 2024.

You can recognize Rocky Mountain Ballet Academy trained dancers by their solid technique and artistry, and most importantly by their positivity and professionalism. RMBA nurtures a student’s passion to explore and develop their artistic core, leading to great performances in dance and in life.

RMBA is known as a premier training academy in Colorado. It has been recognized by Youth America Grand Prix and awarded as Best Ballet School and Outstanding Faculty in the state of Colorado for six straight years. Due to their training, our young dancers have graduated from prestigious universities, joined major ballet and contemporary companies, and have embraced leadership roles in the arts, academia and their communities.

Thank you for being a part of our Rocky Mountain Ballet Academy Family. We wish you a Happy Holidays!

Love,
Alexei and Maria

Guest Artist Alexei Tyukov: Drosselmeyer

Alexei Tyukov was born in a family of famous Russian figure skaters. At the age of 10, he was a part of the Soviet figure skating team and awarded Candidate Master of sports. Alexei graduated with honors from the Perm State Ballet Academy in 1995 and danced with the Perm State Ballet Theatre that same year.

In 1999, he won the Gold Medal in the Senior Men's Division at the Arabesque Competition in Perm and was awarded the Mikhail Arnopolsky Prize for the most talented competition participant. In 1999 He was a Principal dancer with Ballet Internationale

Indianapolis where he performed leading roles in Phaedra, Creation of the World, The Nutcracker, Sleeping Beauty, Firebird, Carmen and Thousand and One Night, Le Corsaire, Napoli, La Baydere, Raymonda and Interzone. He has danced throughout the world, including in Taiwan, China, Canada, Germany, France, North America, South Korea, Japan and many others countries.

In 2006, he joined Cincinnati Ballet as a Principal dancer and performed classical and contemporary works including Plan to B by Jorma Elo, The Bridge by Val Caniparoli, and Bakers Dozen by Twyla Tharp. Alexei has also participated in numerous galas including Le Gala Des Etoiles in Montreal, Stars of the 21st Century in Paris, Stars of the Mariinski in Germany and the International Gala in South Korea.

The New York Times said of Tyukov, "In Swan Lake, Alexei Tyukov broke the audience's hearts as much as Odette's in his eloquent portrayal of an all too-human Siegfried."

In 2016, Alexei was invited to perform at the First Far East Festival where he performed on Mariinsky stage performing "Swan Lake" and "Le Corsaire".

Mr. Tyukov joined Colorado Ballet as a Principal in 2007 where he danced Le Corsaire, Sleeping Beauty, Cinderella, Swan Lake, Romeo and Juliet, Don Quixote, Right of Spring, Dracula, Peter Pan, Alice in Wonderland, Midsummer Night's Dream, Giselle, and many others. He retired in 2017 to open Rocky Mountain Ballet Academy.
